TOWARDS COMPREHENSIVE STRATEGY FOR SOLVING SLUM AGGLOMERATION: JORDAN AS A CASE STUDY

Abstract This research analyzes the slum agglomeration through the general concept of this contemporary term and the causes of its growth in the world in general and in Jordan in particular.

This research discusses four principal parameters:

- 1- General concepts: focus some opinions of researchers specialized in the field of slum areas, urban rehabilitation and renewal.
- 2- Slum problems and risks: describe the nature of slum problems from the theoretical point of view regarding social, environmental and economical issues
- 3- Causes related to slum: Jordan is selected as a case study, particularly its laws, urban regulation, the nature of housing demand, the role of public and private sector in housing supply, the financial possibilities and other studies.
- 4- Methods of solution: this research introduce some experiences on how to face these problems, then the recommendations are focus on methodological and comprehensive approach to solve the problem, through strategic planning, urban regulation, financial and administrative organization.
